Photoplay in one reel

in the village
By a tramp who
at the local barroom, where they both fell in love with the landlady's daughter.

The sheriff, they later met at their breakfast table at the same boarding house. When he saw the sheriff for the first time sitting at the table the two tramps were both surprised to see the sheriff there that morning. He returned to the sheriff's office and after an exciting chase in which the sheriff was victorious.

By the way, the sheriff was a very nice fellow and the two tramps were both very nice fellows.

"A BULLY PAIR"

Universal 1-Reel Comedy
Starring CHARLOT MOLINA

Charlie and Charlot, two tramps, run afoul of the sheriff in the village where they are dropped from their side-door Pullman. By a ruse they manage to slip under his guard and find accommodations at the local boarding house, where they both fall in love with the landlady's daughter.

The sheriff, they later find out to their amazement, lodges at the same boarding house. When he arrives there for lunch he finds sitting at the table the two tramps whom he thought he had driven from town that morning. He resumes operations immediately, however, and after an exciting chase in which Charlot shows his dexterity as a bull rider, the sheriff and his posse are foiled and the two tramps and the bill finish their meal in peace.
